

Directions: List names of students that come to mind with each characteristic.

- Learns basic skills with few repetitions
- Outstanding verbal skills
- Advanced reading ability
- Outstanding observation and/or memory skills
- Advanced problem solving skills
- Persistence, commitment to task
- Intense curiosity
- Outstanding creativity skills
- Tends to take risks
- Mature/highly developed sense of humor
- Mature when compared with peers
- Strong sense of independence and/or self-efficacy
- Social/emotional needs
- Strong leadership ability or potential
- Broad range of interests
- Focused interests/passion areas
- Perfectionism
- Advanced in comparison to students of similar age, experience, and environment
- Advanced processing speed
- Easily grasps abstract concepts
- An advanced sense of justice/empathy
- Outstanding artistic ability
- Fluent in a second language, K-5

If a child's name occurs frequently or he/she possesses a single intense characteristic, consider gathering other evidence related to behavior, achievement, aptitude, or performance.